THE SECRETS TO Gray-less Locks

Celebrity colorist Mike Petrizzi shares his tips for covering grays based on your hair shade

HELEN HUNT

Blond “Since grays blend in with light hair, full coverage is tricky,” says Petrizzi. Start at home with a medium-hued kit, then see your colorist for highlights. Color hard-to-cover strands with a paint-on stick that lasts until you wash out.

Red “A demi-permanent gloss will gently add back lost vibrancy to fiery red hair” while covering gray strands, says Petrizzi. Use 8 to 10 pumps on clean hair and rinse after 3 minutes. Extend the color even longer by swiping on a root concealer in between washes!

Brunette “Grays stand out the most on dark hair, requiring more maintenance,” says Petrizzi. He says to try a permanent at-home color for full coverage. Follow instructions on box and leave on for 30 minutes, rinse out. Spritz outgrowth with root spray as needed.
